PENINSULAR AND ORIENTAL COMPANY.

QUARANTINE AT EGYPTIAN AND CONTINENTAL PORTS.

ARRANGEMENTS have been made for PASSING the Company's steamers THROUGH THE SUEZ CANAL in QUARANTINE, thus avoiding any detention in Egypt.

The HOMEWARD MAILS are now being landed at VENICE, but the Quarantine, which is still imposed at this and all other Continental Ports, PREVENTS the landing of PASSENGERS, and the QUICKEST route by which they can reach England is to proceed to PLYMOUTH DIRECT.

The passages of the steamers will continue to be accelerated as much as possible. The last four steamers have made the voyage from Bombay to Plymouth in 23 days. Until the Continental route is again open, passengers taking three-monthly Return Tickets will be allowed an extension of a fortnight, if required.

Superintendent.

DEFECTIVE OR FAILING SIGHT.
THE sense of sight is so valuable that the importance of perfect and carefully adjusted spectacles cannot be overrated ; although the wearing of single eye-glasses should be strictly avoided, we have the highest medical authority, confirmed by daily experience, that imperfect glasses, together with the haphazard plan of selection generally employed, are frequent causes of irremediable injury to the sight ; and as no present economy can compensate for such a loss, it behoves all to be cautious how they are tempted to use the common pebble or glass spectacles now so generally sold.
For the guidance of those who are using pebble spectacles, it may be stated that when the pebbles are cut against the grain, and not polished on the principle which has been universally declared the most appropriate, based on scientific research, they are injurious to the sight.
Undivided with the unnecessary wearing of spectacles undoubtedly is, the common notion that their use should be postponed to the utmost is proved beyond dispute to be a grave mistake.
Being in possession of all the optical instruments taken over by us from Dr. A. Menist, we are not only in a position to suit the eye sight to perfection, but to supply different accommodations for each eye which so frequently are needed.

The Bombay Gazette
WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 12, 1883.

WE sincerely trust the gentlemen who are concerned in agitating against the Corporation grant of Rs. 50,000 to welcome the Duke and Duchess of Connaught will refrain from pursuing their ungenerous policy. We are not inclined to give over much credence to "gup" in matters of this sort, but it may not be out of place to say that reports current among the native community do not reflect favourably on the motives of the dissentients. The resolution as our readers are aware, was passed "by acclamation," and it seems, therefore, unfortunate that this refreshing unanimity should be marred, even in the faintest degree, by the discord of doctrinaire economists or disappointed aspirants. It is always easy, of course, to get up a case against spending public money in public festivity. This jealousy of the public purse is, however, a purely English sentiment. In other countries it is considered not merely excusable, but obligatory, for the public authorities to take the lead in popular rejoicing. And even in England certain obligations are acknowledged to be imposed on public bodies when these become, in any way, representatives of national feeling. As a rule English municipalities are prohibited from employing the rates to purposes of this character, but even in this stringent code a loophole is provided for emergency. By the simple artifice of voting the Mayor a salary, the public funds may be brought under contribution. But this very general rule does not apply to capital cities ; and not even the sourest Radical would suggest that the reformed Municipality of London should be absolutely prohibited from dispensing that princely hospitality which is the chief glory of the present Corporation. We have always been inclined to scrutinise rather narrowly applications for contributions from the public purse. Nevertheless, if cases for such expenditure are not to be occasionally acknowledged, it were needless to have an enabling clause in the Municipal Act, such as section 137, clause a, unquestionably is. If this clause were ever to be put into operation surely the arrival of the Queen's soldier-son is itself worthy of celebration, even if he did not bring with him an English princess who will be the first to visit these shores.

The resolution which was accepted so heartily by the Corporation had the advantage of authoritative approval. The Rao Saheb is no "professional loyalist." He is in all things the impersonification of economy ; and his anxiety in matters of expenditure have, it seemed to us, sometimes, verged on parsimony. When, therefore, he comes forward to propose a vote on behalf of public festivity we may suppose the case is very strong indeed. His representative position in the Hindoo community, and the authority which he wields among his fellows, are ample guarantees that in submitting his motion to the Corporation last Friday he acted in accordance with their sympathies and wishes. It may be urged that the grant is excessive. We don't think it is. Fifty thousand rupees from a city of 800,000 inhabitants, the first in India, and the second in the Empire, is surely not too lavish for such an occasion. Being the nearest city to Europe, in India, Bombay has obligations imposed upon it, from which its compeers are free. If it chooses to discharge these functions, it ought to do so in a manner worthy of its proud motto. Bombay has frequently stood forward in this Imperial character. The entire country has acknowledged its liberality ; and, no doubt, Government will come to see the advisability of making some allowance for its exceptional burdens in this respect. We should like to see this fact taken into consideration in the pending transfer of revenue. But whether Government realise its duty in this respect, we think Bombay cannot shirk the task it freely accepted in the cases of the Duke's illustrious brothers. That acknowledged, and a good deal of the difficulty—if difficulty there be—is got out of the way. For, if the city is to make a grant at all, that grant should not be a shabby one. It is very easy to point to the Flats and say there is plenty to do there with Rs. 50,000. But is this illustration applicable ? We think not. Do any of the dissentients who are getting up this letter of remonstrance venture to assert that if this half lakh, or any portion of it, were withheld, the money so economised would be applied to the purposes they indicate as worthy of municipal expenditure ? As a matter of fact such arguments do not minimise the case for the Rao Saheb's proposal, because when the Corporation make up their mind on those matters which have appealed so keenly to the sensibilities of the "remonstrants," the saying of a quarter of a lakh out of the Duke's vote wont affect the matter one way or the other. If the Municipality acknowledge any liability in the matter at all—and no one disputes this—it is incumbent on them to see that the work is done worthily of the city and of the occasion. It may be argued that the wealthy classes should be made to subscribe a fund. Well, it is not proposed that the Municipality should pay the entire cost of the welcome. A public meeting will be held, and a public fund raised to supplement the Municipal grant. As the Corporation are to present the Duke and Duchess with an address, and to take a chief part in the ceremony of welcome, it behoves them also to head the subscription list with a handsome donation. Of course, we are told that we are forming a bad precedent. There have been occasions when such a representation might have been attended to with advantage. But surely the reception of two royal personages, the son and daughter-in-law of the Queen-Empress, is not one in which this argument can be applied. Royal visits to India are like those of more exalted beings—few and far between. When there is the remotest prospect of their being inconveniently multiplied, it will be quite time enough to consider the question of evil precedents. The Rao Saheb remarked that the Duke's arrival would concide with a period of great festivities among the native population—the latter part of Dewalee and the Festival of Lamps. Nothing could be more opportune ; and the enthusiasm which is likely to be manifested among the native population at that time makes it all the more necessary that the achievements of the Municipality should be worthy of them. As a matter of fact, the malecontents have no case whatever, but it is advisable that this should be made clear to them at once. The Town Council will to-day take the grant of the Corporation into consideration. The Government, we are sure, will readily give their sanction to a proposal which, despite a handful of dissentients, is approved by every section of the community.

IT is impossible for any one who takes even a slight interest in military matters not to notice that the Indian Army is in a transition state. The old order of things is passing away, and the new has not had time to establish itself. The last direct commission was given away in 1862, so that there is now no Indian officer—using the term to mean those who entered the service under the old condition of things—under the rank of major. All the captains and lieutenants have come from British regiments, and their being in the

THE MAILS.

THE P. & O. Company have received a telegram ting that the s. s. Surat, which left Bombay on e 4th instant, arrived at Aden at 11 a. m. on esday, 11th idem.

WE have attempted in another column to alyse the mass of Opinions on the Jurisdiction ill, for the convenience of our readers. We also blish to-day some Bombay opinions which have t yet seen the light, namely, Mr. Justice Bird- od's (submitted when he was Judicial Com- issioner of Sind), Sir F. Souter's, and the Agents G. I. P. and B. B. and C. I. Railway. Of these ur, Mr. Barnett is the only one who is opposed the principle of the Bill.

THE Vehar Lake, we find from a return made Mr. Braham, the Deputy Executive Engineer to e Municipality, contained 56·40 feet of water on e 7th inst., when the total rainfall was 81·40 ches. On the corresponding day of last year the epth of the water was 51·50 feet, the rainfall aving been 50·36 inches. In the Tulsi Lake the eight of the water was gauged at 53·29 feet on the th inst., when the total rainfall had amounted to 0·58 inches. On the corresponding day of last ear the height of the water in the Tulsi lake was 5·97 feet, and the total rainfall 67·58 inches.

THE Madras papers which sneered at the 'Bombay industry" inaugurated by Mr. Eyres, he local manufacture of surgical instruments, and he Madras medical authorities who, when re- uested by the Government of India to follow the xample of the Bombay Medical Department and se the instruments manufactured here instead of importing from England, found Mr. Erye's instru- ments not good enough for the Benighted Presi- dency and declared that they were ill-made, ill-fi- nished, of poor material, and in fact every way inferior, will be interested to learn that samples of Mr. Eyre's manufactures sent home by Government o be tested, have been pronounced by Mr. Pollock, the examiner of surgical instruments at the India Office, to be "well made, and thoroughly efficient."

A TELEGRAM from Sukkur, 7th September, to an up-country paper, states :—" An enthusiastic meeting was held last evening at the Sukkur Gene- ral Library to protest against the passing of the Ilbert Bill. The Hall was crowded, and standing room was not available. Several ladies were pre- sent. Resolutions were passed condemning the measure, and deciding to support the European and Anglo-Indian Defence Association."

CHOLERA has been more than usually virulent in the Central Provinces this season. In the Wardha District alone, in the week ending August 28th, there were 1,010 cases and 446 deaths ; while in Nagpore 426 deaths occurred out of 786 seizures. Official returns, however, the Pioneer remarks, are not altogether trustworthy, as in Balaghat nine- teen persons are reported to have died of cholera out of seventeen attacked.

THE subscriptions to the Cavagnari Memorial Fund—limited to Rs. 20 each—have now reached the sum of Rs. 1,650 towards the total of Rs. 4,000 which it is desired to raise. Though the present appeal was made solely to the officers, civil and military, of the Punjab Province, Sir Alfred Lyall, Lieutenant-Governor of the N. W. Provinces, and Foreign Secretary to the Government of India during the Afghan war, has specially requested to be allowed to subscribe Rs. 100 towards the memo- rial.

A RESOLUTION is published in Saturday's Gazette of India, by which His Excellency the Viceroy-in-Council directs that the officers of the several Consulting Engineers' Departments in India be brought on the roster of the Railway Branch of the Government of India in the Public Works Depart- ment. The following officers of Madras and Bom- bay are transferred accordingly to a new amalga- mated Railway List, carrying their present appoint- ments from their own list to the Railway List :— Madras—Colonel Shaw Stewart, Lieutenant- Colonel C. J. Smith, Captain W. H. Croker ; Bom- bay—Colonel H. F. Hancock, Colonel J. Bonus, Major R. T. Frere, and Captain H. Pilkington.

SOME silly people are disposed to attribute the Bombay Town Council's refusal to contribute towards the Calcutta Exhibition to unworthy motives of jealousy. Thus, the Pioneer re- marks,—

"Bombay is nothing if not original : the local Town Councillors have decided that "it is not within their power to make any grant of Municipal money in aid of the Calcutta Exhibition," and their action will probably be approved by the citizens whom they represent. And yet they had before them the precedent of the Benares, Lucknow, and Agra Municipalities, smaller and less important bodies, which have granted Rs. 20,000, Rs. 10,000, and Rs. 2,000, respectively, towards defraying the expenses incidental to collecting wares to be exhibited at Calcutta. It is difficult to understand the action of the Bombay Councillors, if they were only asked to vote Rs. 2,000 to the Superintendent of the School of Art, who proposed that the exhibits should, after being duly exhibited, form the nucleus of a permanent Art Museum in Bombay. The Town Council of the "first city in India" has certainly not done its duty in this mat- ter, and ill-natured persons will not be slow to hint at jealousy of Calcutta having swayed the Councillors in their recent decision. A proposal to send the model of the Island of Bombay, which graces the Corporation Hall, was also rejected on the sentimental ground that the model could not be spared ; the real difficulty, however, in the Chairman's mind at least, was that no "showman" could be found to explain its beauties. Calcutta must expect little consideration at the hands of its rival when local sentiment is so easily stirred : perhaps Bom- bay is contemplating having an International Exhibition of its own at an early date.

THE following is the absurd charge against Go- vernment to which our Simla correspondent's telegram refers. We quote from the Pioneer :—

We learn by telegraph from London that a long telegram, from Reuter's Agent at Simla, has been received in England setting forth that 114 Opinions are favourable to the principle of the Ilbert Bill, and only 39 opposed to it. Inasmuch as the Opi- nions themselves are by this time in the hands of the Secretary of State, and will probably be issued to the English newspapers in a few days, this telegram can only influence public opinion for a very short time—say till the appearance of the Times' week- ly telegram from Calcutta this (Monday) Morning, for we doubt not that a full summary of the Gazette Supplement will be sent to the leading journal by its Indian correspondent. All the same, it is a significant fact that such a statement should have been telegraphed, by Reuter's Agent, from the head-quarters of the Government of India : this "long telegram" cannot fail to bring to mind another message which was sent from Calcutta after the debate of March 9th, a message which conveyed an entirely false impression of what had really been said in the Council Chamber.

THE Statesman's programme, under the guidance of Mr. Robert Knight, is a wide one, and a little Utopian in its character. In addition to advocating the employment of Brahmin Magistrates to try Brahmin offenders, Mahrattas to try Mahrattas, Sikhs to try Sikhs, and so on, our contemporary thinks that representatives chosen by popular election should be sent from India to the House of Commons.

We are glad to see the native papers remarking upon the absence of all reference to India in the Queen's Speech proroguing Parliament. The omission too faithfully illustrates the indifference which is felt in England to the fate of this Empire. One would have thought it impossible for such an omission to have occurred at a juncture like the present, and it shows powerfully how hollow are the pretences made by English statesmen generally, as to their "interest" they feel in the country. In- stead of all this passion over the Ilbert Bill, by which, as it seems to us, there is nothing to be gained by the people, infinitely wiser would it have been to agitate in earnest for "representation" in Parlia- ment. Denying the people all representative government in India, on the plea that "the time has not yet come" for representative assemblies :— with how much force might they not petition for the privilege of sending a certain number of representatives to Parliament ? Instead of weakly suggesting that Mr. Ghose should get into Parlia- ment as representative of an English constituency, why did Mr. Forster not say boldly as "represen- tative of an Indian constituency ?" There would have been sound reason in such a suggestion, and if the people are wise, they will familiarize the English public with their desire for this substantial gain.

THE recent marriage of the Ameer of Kabul has made the fifth addition to His Highness's harem ; one beyond the orthodox number. Three of the Ameer's wives are natives of Samarkand, by one of whom was born his eldest son, Habib Ullah Khan, still a youth. The fourth wife is the daughter of Atiq Ullah Khan, who was chief preacher in the Juma Musjid at Kabul, in the days of the Dost. By this lady he has a little boy. The last addition to his harem is by far the most important one ; for, by taking the daughter of Jamiah Khan, Ghilzai, the Ameer has united himself with a powerful political faction. It is not difficult, remarks the Lahore paper, to see that "the succession" in the case of the present Ameer will give rise to serious difficulties at some future day ; even as it did in the time of Dost Muhammad, and still more recently in the time of Sher Ali Khan.

ATTEMPTS are being made to regenerate Port Said, which has been described as "one of the most godless places on the face of the earth." The St. Andrew's Waterside Mission, which has done a noble work among our seamen at home and abroad, has already stationed a chaplain there, who gathers in a room a steadily increasing con- gregation, which, probably, the scare of the cholera will have done something to augment. Other wants still need to be supplied. The only exist- ing hospital available for sailors is wretched in every respect. A piece of land granted for a church and hospital has been enclosed, and nearly £1,000 is in hand for the buildings. Lady Strang- ford has drawn out excellent plans for the hospital, and has offered to go out and superintend the starting of it. It is a work in which Anglo-Indians will feel some interest, and any contributions towards the general fund, or for the hospital or church in particular, which are sent to Archdeacon Mathew at Simla, will be acknowledged by him, and forwarded to the proper quarter.

MILITARY NEWS.

THE following is the programme of His Excel- lency the Commander-in-Chief's (Sir Donald Stewart's) winter tour :—

October 24th, leave Simla for Subathu ; 26th, arrive Dharumpore ; 27th, visit Dugshai ; 28th, reach Kasauli and remain three days ; 30th, reach Umballa and remain three days. November 2nd, reach Fatenpore, where the camp will be formed on October 26th ; thence to Banda on November 3, at which place His Excellency joins the camp. Leaving Banda on November 4th, Sir Donald Stewart will proceed by stages to Karaili viâ Nowgong (9th Nov.), Saugor (Nov. 23rd, 24th, and 25th). After the break-up of the Camp at Karaili on December 4th, His Excellency will proceed by rail to Calcutta, starting on December 5th, and halting en route at Pachmarhi on the two following days. On the 9th he will reach Jubbulpore, where he will rest for two days, and on the 12th Allahabad, where he will halt for a day. Leaving Allahabad on December 13th at 8·20 a.m., His Excellency should reach Calcutta at 5·50 the next morning.

A QUETTA correspondent writes to a Kurrachee paper that a military touring movement of some importance is arranged for the month of Novem- ber. Sir Robert Sandeman, accompanied by a column, consisting of 200 men of the 2nd Grenadiers and 80 sabres of the Sind Horse, will leave Quetta on the 5th of November for Ketch Mekran. The tour, it is believed, will be extended as far as the Belooch coast, and the troops will return to Quetta by way of Kurrachee. A regiment of the 3rd Native Light Infantry, with a battery of Artillery, will also proceed to Thul Chotiali early in November.

THE details of the 2nd, 3rd, and 12th Native Infantry Regiments which arrived at Kurrachee from Bombay by the Government steamer Amber- witch, left on the 7th instant by the mail-train en route to join their respective corps in the Quetta District.

COLONEL P. H. HARCOURT, R. A., has been granted eight months' leave to England.

IT is stated that Colonel Stansfield, Com- mandant, Northern Bengal Railway Volunteers, will hand over the command of the corps to Major Nicolay, Officiating Commandant of the Presidency Volunteers.

P. ; and the distribution in the east and south is similar to yesterday's. But in the north-west an arm of high readings has been formed, somewhat similar to that which prevailed at Rajkot. Rain has fallen heavily at Guna and Pachmarhi, but elsewhere the amounts are small. Pressure is still below the monthly average, except in the south. The maxi- mum temperatures yesterday in the Punjab and N. W. P. exceeded ninety. Rain to-day :—Guna, 7 inches ; Pachmarhi, 4½ inches ; Diamond Island and Moulmein, 2 inches ; Ludhiana, Mussoorie, Hazaaribagh, Chittagong, Calcutta, False Point, and Tounghoo, ½ inch. Previously, Seoni and Pachmarhi had 3 inches ; Murree, Raipur, and Silchar, 1 inch.

BHOSAWUL.—Copious showers of rain have fallen, and a cessation is much needed for the thriving crops.

AURANGABAD AND JALNA.—Too much rain ; the Koonbis are anxious about the crops.

SECUNDERABAD (DECCAN).—Good showers of rain have fallen, and there is every sign of more. About 27 inches have been gauged to date. The depth of water in the Hussain Saugor lake on the 4th September was 25 feet.

BEEJAPUR (8TH SEPT.)—A break in the weather is much needed for the crops, which are being in- jured by too much rain. The work on the Eastern Deccan Railway is almost at a standstill owing to the extremely wet weather.

HIGH COURT.—SEPTEMBER 11.

(Before the Hon'ble Mr. Justice SCOTT.)

The following short causes were disposed of by his lordship :—

THOMAS FISHER PUNNETT vs. DAMJEE JADOWJEE AND ANOTHER.

This was a suit brought to recover a sum of Rs. 4,750, due on consignments of cotton and wheat alleged to have been made through the plaintiff. Mr. Lang, instructed by Messrs. Payne and Gilbert, appeared for the plaintiff ; and Mr. Inverarity, in- structed by Messrs. Smith and Frere, for the defen dants.

Mr. Inverarity moved that the case be transferred to the list of long causes. The learned counsel read the plaint, from which it appeared that the defen- dants had for some time past had dealings with the plaintiffs, consisting chiefly of consignments o cotton and wheat shipped to England. The resul of the dealings was that in August last there wa as found due to the plaintiffs a sum of Rs. 5,000 odd. On the 2nd August the defendants examined the plaintiffs' books, and agreed to pay a sum of Rs. 4,750. This they failed to do, and the plaintiffs, therefore, claimed this amount, with interest at 9 per cent. The defendants said in their written statement that, instead of any sum being due from them, it would be found that a sum was due to them by the plaintiffs.

Mr. Lang argued against the case being trans- ferred to the long cause list.

His lordship held that the suit could not be heard as a short cause.

GEORGE LOCKHART AND ANOTHER vs. HEERJEE HANSRAJ AND ANOTHER.

In this case Mr. Lang, instructed by Messrs. Prescot and Winter, appeared for the plaintiffs, and Mr. Inverarity, instructed by Mr. J. C. Cama, for the first defendant.

Mr. Inverarity applied to have the suit trans- ferred to the long cause list. The plaintiffs alleged that the defendants, who traded in partnership under the name of Vussonjee Nensey and Company, had agreed on two different dates in October, 1882, to sell certain quantities of rapeseed to the plaintiffs. The defendants having failed to carry out their agreements, the plaintiffs alleged they had suffered a loss of Rs. 4,525, and they now claimed this sum, with interest and costs. The learned counsel said that the first defendant denied having been a partner in the firm of Vussonjee Nensey at the time the agreements were entered into.

His lordship, after hearing the arguments of both sides, ordered the case to be transferred to the list of long causes.

ISAAC ALCOCK AND OTHERS vs. DADABHOY JAMSETJEE AND ANOTHER.

The above suit was struck out, none of the parties appearing in court.

FRAUDULENT RETAIL DEALERS.—Bhoota Veer- chund and two other retail dealers in grocery having their shops in the Fort were yesterday convicted by Mr. P. Ryan of having in their possession a false weight and scales. Prisoner No. 1 was fined Rs. 3, and the other two Rs. 5 each.

ROBBING A MARWAREE.—Yesterday Janoo Gun- goo, a noted character, was convicted by Mr. C. P. Cooper of stealing currency notes and cash of the collective value of Rs. 67-8, the property of Sookdyal Shalligram, a Marwaree shroff. The prisoner, on admitting a previous conviction for a similar offence, was sentenced to nine months' rigorous imprisonment.

STOWAWAYS.—Mahomed Esaub Balka and Ta- joodeen Shaik Enoos, calassees, were yesterday convicted by Mr. C. P. Cooper, of secreting them- selves on board the steamship Burmah while that vessel was lying in Kurrachee Harbour, and pro- ceeding to sea, without the consent of the captain or the agents and owners. They were fined Rs. 15 each, in default to undergo fourteen days' rigorous imprisonment.

THE BELLRINGERS.—We learn that the Lynch Family of Bellringers, who were so favourably re- ceived when they made their first début at the Gaiety Theatre, intend revisiting Bombay, when they will give three farewell concerts, prior to their departure for China, Japan, &c. The first perfor- mance will be given on the 27th instant. The company (four through Southern India has been remarkably successful, and their efforts have been eulogistically criticised in the local press.

BERAR POLICE.—Major E. J. Gunthorpe, M. S. C., District Superintendent of Police, Akola, is about proceeding on sick leave. Mr. C. A. Fraser, Assist- ant Superintendent from Secunderabad, will officiate for him pro tem. The police force consists of 2,627 men (exclusive of Superintendents), all but 50 per cent are supplied with firearms, the rest with swords and batons. The use of the weapons is being taught these people, but on the whole they are not good marksmen. A proper census of the police is about 1 to 6·1 square miles in area, and 1 to 998 of popula- tion.

UNPROVOKED ATTACK WITH STICKS.—Dadabhoy Byramjee and Shapoojee Coverjee were yesterday charged, before Mr. Dosabhoy Framjee, with assault- ing Hormusjee Bhickajee on the night of the 9th instant. It appears that the complainant, on the night in question, accompanied a friend of his, named Bomonjee Rustomjee, to his residence at Hizra-street, and that while he was standing in the verandah the two accused, with others, suddenly attacked him with sticks, and fractured his right arm. The police came up, and the two accused, who apparently were the ringleaders, were arrested. The others escaped. The complainant being laid up in the J. J. Hospital, the case was postponed for hearing to the 18th instant, and the two defendants were allowed to be liberated on bail in a sum of Rs. 250 each in their own recognizance, and two sureties in a sum of Rs. 125 each.

THE MAZAGON MANUFACTURING COMPANY.—A meeting of this company was held yesterday afternoon, Mr. Dinshaw Manockjee Petit presiding. The directors' report for the half-year ended 30th June last stated that the company had made a nett profit of Rs. 1,03,577, and the sum of Rs. 1,661, being the balance of the last month's profit. After writing off Rs. 25,000 for depreciation in the value of the spinning machinery, the directors had declared an interim dividend of Rs. 12 per share, absorbing Rs. 60,000. The company had at their disposal a balance of Rs. 18,557, from which the directors re- commended to set aside Rs. 15,000 for depreciation in the value of the mill buildings, leaving Rs. 3,557 to be carried forward. Resolutions were then passed adopting the directors' report and statement of accounts setting aside Rs. 15,000, out of the profits made during the half year, for depreciation in the value of the mill buildings ; and thanking the directors and agents for the satisfactory manage- ment of the company. Thanks were voted to the chairman, and the meeting terminated.

THE HYDERABAD COUNTERFEIT COIN CASE.—The prisoners in this case were sentenced by the Sessions Judge, Mr. Crowe, last Saturday morning. The Court was not crowded, but a number of the members of the Bora community, notably some of the relations of the prisoners, were present. Prisoner No. 1, Mahomed wullud Ebraim, was sentenced to eighteen months' and prisoner No. 2 Noor Ma- homed wuud Abdool Rahamon, to two years' rigorous imprisonment.—Poona Observer.

BILLIARD MATCH AT POONA.—A number of gentlemen met at Mr. Hardwicke's hotel on Satur- day night to witness a game of 1,000 up between Mr. Bridger of Bombay and Malone, the latter conced- ing 150 points. When the score stood at 251—176, Antone made a nice little break of 43, following it up with 13, 29, 16, and 9. At 357 the players were level, and when, shortly afterwards, the game was stopped for an interval of five minutes, Antone led by 12 points. Mr. Bridger, who played very steadily, made several very decent breaks, the highest being 19. At the conclusion of the game, Antone led by over a hundred. Antone is a remarkable all-round cannon player, but is not strong on the winning hazard. His best breaks were two twenties, 43, 37, 35, and 26, all of them all-round breaks.—Ibid.

MURDER AT DHOND.—The following are further particulars of the murder :—A party of ten men left the 8th Regiment, N. I., while coming to Poona from Nusseerabad, for the Rifle Meeting, halted at Dhond, on the 7th instant. A most brutal murder was committed by one of the party, who was the husband of the woman murdered. All ten men were arrested here in Poona, and were taken down to Dhond by Mr. O'Connor, of the Railway Police, who inquired into the matter and then arrested the deceased's husband as the culprit. The other nine men were released. The postmortem exami- nation was held by the G. I. P. Company's Doctor at Dhond.—Deccan Herald.

THERE will be service on board the s. s. St. Bernard, in the Prince's Dock, at half-past seven o'clock this evening. Captains, officers, and seamen are cordially invited to attend. The Bethel flag will be hoisted in the afternoon.

WHOLESALE ROBBERIES.

SHAPOORJEE BEZONJEE MODY and Nowrozjee Ruttonjee Meseman, alias Goorwalla, were yester- day charged before Mr. P. Ryan, prisoner No. 1 with committing a series of thefts of property, consist- ing of silk sarrees, silver vessels, a gold McCabe's watch, silver watches and chains, and a quantity of gold and silver embroidery and other miscel- laneous articles, &c., of the value of about Rs. 1,061, belonging to some twenty-five Parsees, residing in the Fort and in parts of the Native Town. The charge against prisoner No. 2 was that of dishonestly receiving and assisting in the dis- posal of the property. He was further charged with the theft of four books, of the value of Rs. 30, from the Royal Asiatic Society's rooms. It appeared that during the past few months prisoner No. 1 had gone about in a systematic manner committing thefts at Parsee residences in the Fort and other parts of the town. His modus operandi was as follows :—He would enter a house most deliberately and without hesitation, and when observed by any of the tenants, and asked the nature of his errand, he would be always ready with some such excuse as that he was looking for a Parsee by name so and so, who was wanted, and who, he had been told, resided there. He would then walk away, and shortly after his exit, the parties residing in the house would miss their property, and report the matter to the police, naturally suspecting the strange Parsee of being the thief. In this manner he had entered the house of Mr. Dinshaw Manockjee in Hornby-road, finding an opportunity, he had stolen that gentleman's gold watch by McCabe. Mr. Dinshaw reported the matter to the police, giving, of course, a minute description of the in truder, and also of his watch. The prosecutor was also adopted of describing the watch to the various watchmakers in the town. On Satur- day last a gold watch answering the descrip- tion of that given by Mr. Dinshaw was offered for sale at Messrs. Marcks and Co.'s by pri- soner 1, who was detained there until arrest- ed by Inspector Grennan, who had been communi- cated with. When searching the prisoner's residence at Mathergaudy, several of the articles mentioned in the charge were found. Other por- tions of the stolen property were found to have been pledged with Marwarees through the agency of prisoner No 2 ; and other property, again, had been sold to private persons by both prisoners. The four books belonging to the Royal Asiatic Society were found in the possession of prisoner No. 2. The prisoners were both convicted upon the evidence adduced. Prisoner No. 1 was sentenced to an accumulated term of three years' rigorous imprisonment, and prisoner No. 2 to one year's similar imprisonment.

At the close of the case Messrs. Jallbhoy Dorabjee Oomrigur and Khan Bahadoor Sorabjee Merwanjee Haiwae, whose property had been stolen and now recovered, contributed Rs. 10 and Rs. 5 respectively towards the funds of the Fort Police Court poor- box.

MARY PIGOTT VS. THE REV. W. HASTIE.

ON this case being resumed on Friday, the follow ing witnesses were called :—

CAROLINE ALICE SHARPLAND, sworn, said that she was now the wife of the chief officer of the Hooghly Bridge. Previous to that she was Mrs. Briggs, and was by occupation a sick-nurse, in con- nection with the Canning Home. In January 1879, she had a special employment as sick nurse to at- tend on Mr. Hastie, at Dr. Charles's request, at Mr. Steele's house, in Old Court House-street. She knew Miss Pigott during the time she was nursing Mr. Hastie. On the 9th, Miss Pigott and Mr. Wilson called in a gharry at Mr. Steele's house. She did not at that time know the lady or the gentle- man. They walked into the sick gentleman's room. Miss Pigott told the witness that she was coming at night to relieve her, and the witness told her that she would be very glad of the relief. Miss Pigott came between the hours of 8 and 9 o'clock at night. She came in company with another gentleman. Witness did not know at that time who the gentleman was, but on the third day she learnt that he was Mr. Wilson. Miss Pigott stayed there that night. [Witness here pointed out Mr. Wilson as the gentleman who had accompanied Miss Pigott.] Miss Pigott went away from the sick-room about 6 o'clock in the morning of the 10th. Witness was there when she left. Mr. Wilson was all the time in the sick-room. Miss Pigott was off and on in the sick-room. Mr. Hastie occupied the room, and witness had a separate room in the verandah. On two occasions Miss Pigott and Mr. Wilson left the room together and came again into it,—one was at 12 o'clock at night, and the other the four in the morning. Miss Pigott's behaviour in the sick-room was very unladylike. She was lolling upon Mr. Wil- son and put her hand upon his thigh. Witness spoke to Mr. Hastie about this on the second occasion. She said that Miss Pigott's conduct was very unladylike, particularly in a sick-room where there was such a bad case ; and that as soon as he (Mr. Hastie) was out of danger, she would leave him immediately. On the first occasion when witness spoke to Mr. Hastie about Miss Pigott's conduct, he said—"Please don't say anything just now." During the time witness was with Mr. Hastie, which was from the 9th to the 15th of January, Miss Pigott came every day. Miss Pigott was always in and out of the room. She helped the witness in nursing at night during her relief hours. On every occasion Miss Pigott came she was accompanied by Mr. Wilson. Her conduct towards Mr. Wilson was very rude and bold ; she was continually leaning and lolling on Mr. Wilson, and always in close conversation with him. Witness told Mr. Hastie that as soon as he could put his foot on the ground, she did not care to stay any longer. Mr. Hastie did not tell anything to her at the time. On the 16th January witness left Mr. Hastie. Since then she had not seen Miss Pigott to her recollection. Mr. Hastie was in a very weak state when witness left him ; she left him simply because she did not care to stay longer to countenance Miss Pigott's rude be- haviour. Witness said that she had been a private nurse six or seven months. Before that she was for out of his power ; he could not help anybody he did not know. Witness next saw Mr. Hastie on another occasion, when he went to see her and her husband. She did not remember the month. He called at her present house in Howrah ; he was alone. It was about 5 o'clock in the evening. He went to see them as he was passing by. It was raining at the time. She believed he was in an open conveyance. Witness next saw him in his house about the month of March of this year, to ask him if he could try and get her brother-in-law a situation. He refused to do so. He said it was quite out of his power to do anything. The situa- tion was in the E. B. Railway. Witness saw him in company of Mr. Gregory ; it was some few days ago. There was nobody else. She did not expect the visit. It was quite unexpected. He asked the witness if she remembered the conduct of Miss Pigott when she attended on Mr. Hastie. Witness said that she did. It was some few days ago ; it might be some seven or eight days ago. She introduced Mr. Gregory to the witness and her husband. All that the witness stated was from memory. She did not tinctions," are consistent with the general course of Indian legislation for the past 25 years, and, though brought forward now at an unfortunate moment, embody a just principle, the operation of which could not be much longer consistently withheld in its application to those Native Magistrates who have qualified for the positions of Sessions Judge or District Magistrate under the rules laid down by Government itself and shown their fitness to exercise the powers attached to these positions.

I would suggest, however, the substitution of "five years" for "three years" in the amended draft of section 444 of the Code embodied in section 4 of the Amendment Bill as the period within which no Assistant Sessions Judge shall exercise jurisdiction over European British subjects; the longer period affording greater security for the display of trustworthy qualities in the individual officer, and furnishing Government with fuller opportunities of judging of his character and ability, before entrusting him specially with that jurisdiction. The power reserved to Local Governments in this latter respect will, I do not doubt, be exercised with discretion, but, in extending the jurisdiction of selected Native Magistrates over Europeans in this country, it seems to me desirable that strong guarantees of their personal fitness for the wise exercise of the power to be entrusted to them should be insisted upon.

So far as I can judge, the effect of the alteration in the law contemplated by the Criminal Jurisdiction Amendment Bill now under consideration will, in the districts traversed by this Company's Railway be hardly perceptible for at any rate many years to come, even if the Bill should be passed in its present form.

It may, however, be fairly presumed that the crucial examination and public criticism on all sides that the Bill has undergone will ensure such safeguards being introduced in its final form as will provide every reasonable security and protection for the just rights of such Europeans as may come under its operation.

The opinions I have submitted to Government on the subject are those that my personal judgment leads me to form. As regards the views on the measure held by the European employés of this Company, I have no data on which to reply your enquiry, except the fact, which I think indicates the absence of any strong feeling amongst them on the matter, that no representation from them on the subject has been made to me. In the early days of the public discussion of the measure, the Traffic Manager brought to me a letter he had received from the Traffic Manager of the East Indian Railway, enquiring what the members of this Company's service intended to do in the matter; but, on my declining to sanction the fostering of any similar agitation on this Railway to that carried through on the East Indian line, the matter went no further. If a spontaneous movement had taken place amongst the European employes on this Railway in opposition to the Bill, I should have felt it my duty to represent the facts to Government.

BURMAH.

MISHAPS AT A SHAM-FIGHT.—We regret to hear that the visit of the Chief Commissioner and the Major-General to Yenangyoung has been marred by two accidents. On Thursday evening there was a large station dinner given at the Bedfordshire Regiment's Mess-house, at which nearly every one was present, including ladies. In the middle of dinner an alarm was given that the Artillery Mess-house was on fire,—kerosine-oil as usual. Major-General Prendergast had taken up his quarters there, and gallant efforts were made to save his effects, including military despatches, and were fortunately successful. After it was all over the company returned to dinner, but there was no sleep for the officers, as the General had ordered a night attack on the fort by land and water to commence at three o'clock in the morning. There was an awful din, the I. G. S. Irrawaddy steaming past and firing broadsides, discharged by a party of Artillerymen, who had been sent on board to work the guns. The land force consisted of the Bedfordshire right wing and the 28th M. N. I., who besieged the fort with escalading ladders, and managed to get in, in spite of a gallant defence. In the scramble, excitement and confusion a musket went off close to one of the Bedfordshire men, wounding him in the abdomen and killing him on the spot. A post mortem examination was held, when the wads of the charge were found in his body.—Rangoon Gazette.

CURIOUS ADVENTURE OF TWO AMERICAN SAILORS.

RECENTLY the Charitable Society of Allahabad sent down to Calcutta an American, named Van Buran, who will have good reason to remember India for some time to come. He was an engineer on board the American man-of-war, Washington, which put into the Bombay harbour for the repair of her engines. As it was likely that the vessel would remain some time in the docks, Van Buran and a comrade, named Rogers, who held the position of Navigating Lieutenant, availed themselves of a fortnight's leave of absence to visit Delhi and Lucknow, which places they were desirous of seeing on account of the associations of '57 with which they are connected. On the evening of the 14th August they found themselves at the Lucknow Railway Station, where they fell in with a couple of Artillery soldiers, and all four went in for a night's carouse in the waiting-room. The next morning when Van Buran and Rogers awoke from their sleep the soldiers had disappeared. They had left behind their uniforms, even to the spiked helmets and top-boots, and on the principle of fair exchange being no robbery, had taken away instead the clothes of the two sailors. The exchange, however, was not altogether fair; for whereas the pockets of the apparel which the soldiers had annexed contained cash and currency notes to the value of nearly Rs. 100, all that they left behind in their uniforms were a third-class ticket to Bombay and a couple of military leave passes (since ascertained to be forgeries) made out in the names of John Williams and Thomas Roberts respectively. Brothers Jonathan bore their loss philosophically and without a pice in their pockets took their seats in the train which left Lucknow that morning. How they managed to travel on to Allahabad with only one ticket between them, is a mystery which perhaps the railway officials may be able to explain. At Allahabad the irregularity was observed and objection taken to it. Rogers was allowed to proceed on to Bombay with the ticket in his possession, while Van Buran was made over to the Railway Police. From that date (15th August) he was kept in restraint until the other day, part of the time in the military barracks and part in the lock-up at Katra, until it was ascertained that he was not one of the two artillerymen who had deserted from their Battery at Lucknow, and his statements concerning himself verified by reference to the American Consul at Bombay. On arriving at Calcutta it is the intention of Van Buran to seek the aid of his Consul to enable him to rejoin his vessel now cruising in the China seas.—Pioneer.

THE "BULL DOG'S HEAD" BRAND.
(BASS'S ALE AND GUINNESS'S STOUT.)

READ BROTHERS, of London, request purchasers of their Bottled Ale and Stout to ask for "THE DOG'S HEAD BRAND," because another and totally distinct Bottle uses the figure of a Bull Dog, and thus two bottlings of entirely different character may both be called "BULL DOG."

The original "Bull Dog" mark is the registered property of READ BROTHERS, and their bottling still often goes by that name, but the title of "DOG'S HEAD BRAND" is theirs exclusively, and is the only one that is protected by the injunction of the Lords Justices of England.
